

Sweet Lies

Wilkinson

Softly
Here upon my pillow
When the words are spoken
And you're here with me alone
Your kiss
Ignorance is my bliss
When promises are empty
When they're all I have to hold

So tell me your sweet lies
I'm not giving up your love
As long as there's sweet lies
I wanna hold, I wanna hold on to your sweet lies
I'm not giving up your love
You're nothing but sweet lies

Look me in the eye, can't you tell me
I'm just another love you could leave behind
Look me in the eye, can't you tell me
Is there any love here or just sweet lies
Look me in the eye, can't you tell me
I'm just another love you could leave behind
Look me in the eye, can't you tell me
Is there any love here or just sweet lies

Fearless
Though we live in secret
I only live for your touch
Enough love for the both of us
Wasted
Impossible to face it
Can we keep it in the shadow
Cause I never ever wanna let you go

So tell me your sweet lies
I'm not giving up your love
As long as there's sweet lies
I wanna hold, I wanna hold on to your sweet lies
I'm not giving up your love
You're nothing but sweet lies

Look me in the eye, can't you tell me
I'm just another love you could leave behind
Look me in the eye, can't you tell me
Is there any love here or just sweet lies
Look me in the eye, can't you tell me
I'm just another love you could leave behind
Look me in the eye, can't you tell me

So tell me your sweet lies
I'm not giving up your love
As long as there's sweet lies
I wanna hold, I wanna hold on to your sweet lies
I'm not giving up your love
You're nothing but sweet lies
