

If She Could Speak

Will Haven

Will you embrace me
I wish you godspeed
why are you waiting what are you looking for did you even think
but did you know I bet you don't not even I've got nothing for you build your own camelot in dreams without will I've stepped outside to hide myself in someone else
I've got nothing for you
how am I to protect my home when you've broke my seclusion I never asked to be put on your cross who will save you who will become you I've made my court
my throne is full
I'm not your christ
I will not die for you