

She Comes Around

Will Hoge

Hey everybody- won't you gather around?
I'll tell you a secret about this heartbroken clown.

Gave a woman his heart.
Left it open and it all fell apart.
But now he's much more smart than he was back then.

[CHORUS]
Til she comes around again
(whoa, whoa)
She comes around again.
And I know, just how this story will end.
When she comes around again.

Yes now I know it's so easy to see-
The fool in the makeup [?] was laughing, that looks like me.

I will never be blind.
To get stung by love so many times.
I've fathered a part- I'm sinking in.

[CHORUS]
When she comes around again
(whoa, whoa)
She comes around again.
And I know, just how this story will end.
When she comes around again.

And everyone tells me I should be strong.
Try to keep [?]
But everytime she walks in,
I know soon I'll be falling back in love.
I'm just not strong enough.

But I will never be blind.
To get stung by love so many times.
I'm falling apart- I'm sinking in.

[CHORUS]
When she comes around again
(whoa, whoa)
She comes around again.
Yeah she comes around again.
(whoa, whoa) She comes around again.
And I know, just how this story will end.
When she comes around again.
