

Still Got You On My Mind

Will Hoge

This place I'm livin' just aint the same
It's a house but it aint no home
Can't count the days since you went away
Being right never felt so wrong

My oh my, i never thought it could be this hard
Took the pictures all down
I can paint the walls
but i still can't fool my old heart

Woah ooh oh oh oh
I pretend everything is fine
but i know i still got you on my mind

Now the night starts calling and it's time for me to take another lonely walk downtown
Passed all the places that we used to go
Aint the same now that you aint around

My oh my, feels like i'm going insane
The music still plays and the people still laughin' cause' some how everything has changed

Woah ooh oh oh oh
I pretend everything is fine
but i know i still got you on my mind
Still got you on my mind

Theres a brown head woman at the end of the bar asking if i want to come home
Finished my drink and i say i do
Truth is i don't want to be alone

My oh my, lying with her in our bed
She's in my arms but i'm holding on Wishin' it was you instead

Woah ooh oh oh oh
I pretend everything is fine
But i know i still got you on my mind
Did you know i pretend everything is fine
But i know i still got you on my mind
Still got you on my mind
Yea, I still got you on my mind.
