

Woman Be Strong

Will Hoge

I didn't mean to make this hard on you
I'm sorry that I brought you down
But don't you know I get a little lost sometimes Cause all these people hanging around
And I know sometimes I feel like giving in But honey could you please hold on a little bit
Oh woman be strong
Woman, Woman won't you be strong now
I'm sorry that I, I always made you cry
I wish I hadn't cracked the wall
And everytime I stop to think of you
I wish I'd been man enough to call

Yes, I know it's hard sometimes
Putting up with these old wicked ways of mine
Oh woman, be strong
Woman, be strong
Oh, woman won't you be strong now
It would be better if you would just walk away
But honey don't you know that I
I want you
I need you to stay, stay, stay, stay
Baby won't you stay
Woman won't you be strong
Woman won't you be strong
Woman won't you please be strong be strong... (repeat)
