You a star, baby you a star

Walking down an aisle together any time soon 'cause
You gonna' be my bride and, I'm gonna be your groom girl
We gonna' stay together baby through the monsoon and
No matter the weather honey me and you will bloom yeah
Don't compare yourself to ex-chicks I used to go with
'cause your love is real lady, I ain't lettin go of it
I ain't leaving you girl, you'll be by my side
'cause I can't go nowhere without my light
'cause you my star, my star

You a star, you a star
'cause when you shine, baby when you shine
When you shine, when you shine
You be lighting up my life (OH!)
Light up my life (OH!)
Light up my life (OH!)
Light up my life

Yeah baby we'll be

High on love darling we don't need to take drugs
Put away my alcohol, kissing got us feeling buzzed
When you next to me, it's like I'm on ecstasy

We be at it, automatic, sex like triple "X" when we's
You a naughty lady, and sophisticated
I'll be honored baby, if you have my baby
So now let's just be grown-ups and do what grown-ups do
Baby let's develop a star

'cause you my star, my star
My star, my star
Ah

You a star girl (10x)

You a star, baby you a star
You a star, you a star
'cause when you shine, baby when you shine
When you shine, when you shine
You be lighting up my life (OH!)
Light up my life (OH!)

Light up my life (OH!)
Light up my life
