

Pump Ya Brakes

Will Smith

All this excess stress, I can't take it
Slow that thing down, pump ya brakes kid
Why you gotta be all up in the face, kid
The abs will get you numbers and a name, kid
I mean really houndin' on girl is that really necessary
See your itinerary is all off, you need to be hauled off
She start flippin', she ain't trippin', it's your loss
This a simple case of an anti-break pumper
You don't have to talk to me, bumper to bumper
That mighta got you a couple of numbers when you were younger
But dude, switch your whole approach, that ain't proper
Be a gentleman, try and be gentle, man
The essence of stimulation mental man
But if you actin' like ya just got out a kennel, man
Put your foot on the pedal and pump

If your girl in ya face and she out of place
What you need to tell her is (pump ya brakes)
Now if you out with your girls and they pressin' you hard
What you need to tell em is (pump ya brakes)
Now if you underage and you actin' all grown
What you need to do is (pump ya brakes)
If you offended by this record and you know it's you
What you need to do is (pump ya brakes)

Outside the restaurant, girl sees boy, girl likes boy
Girl meets boy, boy doesn't know that girl thinks he's fly
Boy's a nice guy, so boy says 'Hi'
Boy's girlfriend returns from going to park
She sees them together, this ignites a spark
Boy's girlfriend has a real loud bark
Now this is where the pumpin' of the brakes should start
Girlfriend thinks that something's going on Girl tells girlfriend, nothing's going on
Boy's in the middle of the commotion beginning
Girlfriend's mad cause boy keeps grinning
Now, why is he grinning, but that's beside the point
Girlfriend should chill before they roll up in the joint
Jumping to conclusions gets you nowhere, honey
Pump ya brakes or be a crash test dummy
Dummy

If your girl in ya face and she out of place
What you need to tell her is (pump ya brakes)
Now if you out with your girls and they pressin' you hard
What you need to tell em is (pump ya brakes)
Now if you underage and you actin' all grown

Rule #1, is just like #2
The who do's and what not's and what you should dizz-oo
No loud talking, no back talking
If you do either, believe it, you're back walking
I hate to sound rude but then again, I have to
My rap thang and my mack game

It'll smack you , click clack you, spit at you
I don't do it cause I want to, I do it cause I got to
I got a question to ask you
Would you fall, stand tall, ball, or let em smash you
If I was you and you was I, would you keep it G or would you stay fly
If you was rich in a ditch, living low, would you push the button
Keep it cuttin' or would you just let it go
Calm down little homey and know what your dealing with before you run up on
