

From Now On

Will Young

Hey, hey
I don't understand
What's the plan
Why I'm standing here today?
All I've ever known is
A fear to be grown up
And take the blame
It was not too clear
Cause this is new to me
Was it plain to see?

No time for insecurity
It's never coming back to me
Oh no

Never seem to get it
When I know what I want
Cause it's all I hide
Never knew a time when I though it was right
To get it off my mind
I was oh so blind
I was wrong
Cause it's all about my feelings
From now on

Hey, hey
I don't really care if
You share all the pain
That I left behind
It doesn't really matter
Cause now I've got my peace of mind
Let me make it clear

No time for insecurity
It's never coming back to me
Yeah, yeah

Never seem to get it
When I know what I want
Cause it's all I hide
Never knew a time when I though it was right
To get it off my mind
I was oh so blind
I was wrong
Cause it's all about my feelings
From now on

Never seem to get it
When I know what I want
Cause it's all I hide
Never knew a time when I though it was right
I was oh so blind
I was wrong
Cause it's all about my feelings
From now on

It's all about my feelings from now on
It's all about my feelings from now on
It's all about my feelings from now on
Hey, hey, hey
It's all about my feelings from now on
It's all about my feelings from now on
It's all about my feelings from now on
It's all about my feelings from now on
It's all about my feelings from now on
