

Dig A Hole

William Beckett

Dig a hole
Plant a seed
Top it off
Watch and see
Pray for rain
Wait a week
It never comes

Underneath the surface
Underneath the surface,
The absense is threatening

But just behind the curtain
Just behind the curtain,
Something is happening

Judging by the look in your eyes
I'm getting carried away with all my
Waiting and my wishing
That I, I know the winds will change
Together we'll get caught in the rain
Caught in the rain
Caught in the rain
Together we'll get caught in the rain
Caught in the rain
Caught in the rain

Lie awake
You never sleep
Or tell myself
Gotta make you happy
Whatever cost
Whatever fee
Tomorrow comes

Darling on the surface
Darling on the surface,

But just behind the curtain
Just behind the curtain,
Something is happening

Judging by the look in your eyes
I'm getting carried away with all my
Waiting and my wishing
That I, I know the winds will change
Together we'll get caught in the rain
Caught in the rain
Caught in the rain
Together we'll get caught in the rain
Caught in the rain
Caught in the rain

There between the wind and clouds
I finally see
I found out

How impossible it seems
To open up the flood gate
Open up your hands and let go
How it impossible it seems
It's possible to me

Dig a hole
Top it off
Watch and see it

Judging by the look in your eyes
Waiting and my wishing
That I, I know the winds will change
Caught in the rain
Caught in the rain
Together we'll get caught in the rain
Caught in the rain
Caught in the rain

There between the wind and clouds
I finally see
I found out
It's possible to me
