

Can't Change

William Clark Green

Everything is changing it's time to get myself in gear
The depths of all my actions reveal something I fear
I have lost all hope but I hang on to my dreams
They are in my line of sight, but they're always out of reach

And I'm going out to Liverpool to try and make a name
I lost all hope in Dallas, but Dallas ain't to blame
I can't change

Something about the new year brings sorrow melodies
I get so damn depressed and lose all my self-esteem
Maybe it's the winter you know I never liked the cold
Maybe it's a memory still lingering in my soul

And I use to love a woman so I bought her a ring
She left me standing on the boulevard praying for the rain
I can't change

And I won't give up on believing I won't give up on the truth
But it's hard to find the words beneath the pain
And as the dust settles I'm reminded of my youth
And I realize I'm one and the same
And I can't change
I can't change
I can't change
I can't change
