

Come Die With Me

William Control

Change, a thousand ways to paint the picture bleak.
Do I stutter?
Hate. Hate is just another word for love.
Are you with me?
Sound, the written word means more to me than sex, by a long shot.
But ah love, love is just another price we pay.

Oh, come die with me.
Please lay down your sorrow.
Close your eyes don't be afraid.
I have always loved you, I will always love you.
Die with me.
Now we lay down your soul to rest.
Close your eyes yeah embrace the pain.
I have always loved you, I will always love you.

Faith.
Are just frightened of the prospect death.
Are you lonely?
Lust, the need for something greater than a cure.
I can save you.
Lies, the needle scratched and bleed the surface dry.
I'm a goner.
But your love, I can count the beats within your heart.

Walk with me, some will say.
Turn your back, fall away.
You'll see.

Oh, come die with me.
Please lay down your sorrow.
Close your eyes don't be afraid.
I have always loved you, I will always love you.
Die with me.
Now we lay down your soul to rest.
Close your eyes yeah embrace the pain.
I have always loved you, I will always love you.
Die with me.

Die with me.
Light will fade, all the love.
Fall away, die with me, some will say.
Take the pain, I will stay.
But I have always loved you, I will always love you.

Oh, come die with me.
I have always loved you, I will always love you.
