

Funeral Dress

William Fitzsimmons

On a rack in a store for a discount price
But the color's been changed to a black from white Though the difference will prob'ly be lost on me Anyways
And don't worry if laughter is on your lips Cause you wouldn't be you if you changed for this
And I won't measure love from the tears that drip

From your face
i can't wait for you
i can't wait for you
i suppose i should hope that it turns out fine
But I hope that some sadness does cross your mind
And you'll look for me when you have crossed that line Come one day
i can't wait for you
i can't wait for you
i can't wait for you
