Hold On With My Open hands

William Fitzsimmons

If I had known you better I could probably get my money back

From that old preacher and his organist who said she knew my dad

When we were younger and you promised me that you would where my ring

But you where 14 years behind the time when you can mean such things $\ensuremath{\mathsf{S}}$

But I will hold on with my open hands But I will hold on with my open hands

And I suppose I should decide what I can do with all your clothes

And closets full of all the places you and I will never go

Is it misguided that I can recall the day you left my bed And asked your mom and dad if maybe you could stay with them instead

But I will hold on with my open hands But I will hold on with my open hands
