

Josie's Song

William Fitzsimmons

Though I'm not the one who gave
The body and the blood
I won't let you down

There's an elemental bond
In us that won't be found
But you're in my heart

I can hear the sound of the rain
Falling through the floor
As she lets you go

There's a quality of pain
For you she will endure
That measures out her love
Love

When you made in water wide
Without a map to steer
I will comfort you

And when you find the other side
I will still be here
To measure out my love
Love
