

Just Not Each Other

William Fitzsimmons

Walked back home from this disaster
Saw your ghost under the plaster
My heart in thrown, broken to pieces
I'm coming home.

Lost my way, gave up my treasure
Hid my heart, lost you forever wont know her father,
I cant come home.

Loved you first, when we were children
You broke my heart, all that's forgiven
We lost our chance to love one another Well love again (we will) but just not each other (repeat til fade)
