

You Broke My Heart

William Fitzsimmons

14 years is all you made it, 'till forgiveness was frustrated. I was sorry you missed Christmas. Do you think that you'll still miss us?
I was angry when you left us. And it showed up on my matress. And I told myself it's better if we only talk in letters.
You broke my heart.
You broke my heart.

Did you think about my mother when you shared the same bed covers? Did you wonder if it changed her when your sons became your strangers? Where will you go when you're lonely? Since we split apart the family. Al the pictures are outdated. All of us are separated.
You broke my heart.
You broke my heart.
You broke my heart.
I don't feel it anymore.
(Repeats)