

Blue Hotel

Willie Nelson

I'd like to say that I tried
It fits in with all the suggestions and lies and empty tables
With food untouched,
I couldn't see the future.
I liked the past too much
I've been going door to door like I got something to sell,
Wandering like a fool
Through the halls of a blue hotel.

So go on and rain down on us
Go on and rain
Go on and rain down on us
I give up, I give up.

Something about her that's cold.
She's blowing through the trees,
Leaving me raw
As the words come out,
I get confused.
I get shattered like a light bulb in an October moon.
She's inside me like a secret
And I got no one to tell.
Wandering like a fool
Through the halls of a blue hotel.

Go on and rain down on us
Go on and rain
Go on and rain down on us
I give up.
I give up.
