City of New Orleans

Willie Nelson

Ridin' on the City of New Orleans
Illinois Central, Monday mornin' rail
Fifteen cars and fifteen restless riders
Three conductors and twenty-five sacks of mail

All along the south-bound odyssey the train pulls out at Kankakee and rolls along past houses farms and fields Passin' trains that have no names and freight yards full of old black men and the grave-yards of the rusted automobiles

Good morning America, how are you?
Say don't you know me, I'm your native son
I'm the train they call the City of New Orleans and I'll be gone five-hundred miles
when the day is done

Dealin' cards with the old men in the club car penny a point ain't no one keepin' score Pass the paper bag that holds the bottle feel the wheels grumblin' 'neath the floor

And the sons of Pullman porters and the sons of engineers ride their father's magic carpet made of steel Mothers with their babes asleep rockin' to the gentle beat and the rhythm of the rails is all they feel

Good morning America, how are you?
Say don't you know me, I'm your native son
I'm the train they call the City of New Orleans
I'll be gone five-hundred miles
when the day is done

Night time on the City of New Orleans changin' cars in Memphis, Tennessee Halfway home, we'll be there by mornin' thru the Mississippi darkness rollin' down to the sea

But all the towns and people seem to fade into a bad dream and the steel rails still ain't heard the news The conductor sings his songs again the passengers will please refrain this train has got the disappearin' railroad blues.

Good night America, how are you?
Say don't you know me, I'm your native son
I'm the train they call the City of New Orleans
I'll be gone five-hundred miles
when the day is done
