Some other time, I'll forget you.

And start my life anew.

But not just now, I won't forget you,

'Cause I've spent too much time loving you.

I know I could forget you if I wanted to. But there's still ten thousand dreams that I must dream of you.

Some other time, I'll stop rememberin', The love that came my way.
Then I'll forget I ever loved you.
Some other time, but not today.

I know I could forget you if I wanted to. But there's still ten thousand dreams that I must dream of you.

Some other time, I'll stop rememberin', The love that came my way.

Then I'll forget I ever loved you.

Some other time, but not today.
