

Walkin'

Willie Nelson

After carefully considerin' the whole situation I stand with my back to the wall
Walkin' is better than runnin' away and crawlin' ain't no good at all

And if guilty's the question truth is the answer I've been lyin'
' to me all alone
There ain't nothin' worth savin' except one another
And before you'll wake up I'll be gone
Cause after carefully considerin'...
[guitar]
After carefully considerin'...
And crawlin' ain't no good at all
