

You're Only in My Arms (To Cry on My Shoulder)

Willie Nelson

You're only in my arms to cry on my shoulder
Over someone you're trying to forget
You're wearing a smile, but it's just a disguise
I know your heart is breakin' 'cause there's tears in your eyes

So have your little cry and when it's all over
You'll just say goodbye and part
'Cause you're only in my arms to cry on my shoulder
And you're crying your way into my heart

You're only in my arms to cry on my shoulder
Over someone you're trying to forget
You're wearing a smile, but it's just a disguise
I know your heart is breakin' 'cause there's tears in your eyes

So have your little cry and when it's all over
You'll just say goodbye and part
'Cause you're only in my arms to cry on my shoulder
And you're crying your way into my heart

And you're crying your way into my heart
