

Refined In The Fire

Winds of Plague

I Walk this Earth alone, with broken bones.
I fear no evil, evil fucking fears me.
Your time has come, looking down the barrel of a smoking gun.
I am the shattered one.
Evil fucking fears me! Evil fucking fears me!
Refined in the fire, from the flames I emerge.
Death is here.
I am refined in the fire.
From the flame we march on, to victory! Urggggggoh.
Evil fucking fears me!
Evil fucking fears me! I am refined in the fire.
I am the weapon of choice.
For the warrior game, recognize I'm refined in the fire.
Your demons shrink and tremble at the sight of me.
I am refined in the fire.
It will just pick up from, know that time will tell.
Recognize I'm refined in the fire.
Under the blood I stand, to bring war.
Bring war on Earth.

While we're recepting on the other shadowed ground.
I am a solider for the damned and the broken.
You will know me for my path of destruction.
I write to you from Hell.
Forward, oh! Forward, oh! Forward, oh!
You are the one, you've got no war.
I was born in pain aches.
We're enemies! This is the time,
from this fucked world around me.
I'm going out, and I'm taking you with me.
I walk this Earth alone, with broken bones.
I fear no evil, evil fucking fears me.
Your time has come, looking down the barrel of a smoking gun.
I am the shattered one.
Evil fucking fears me! Evil fucking fears me!
Arahhhhhhuuuuhhh!
Evil fucking fears me! Oh! Evil fucking fears me
