

After All This Time

Winger

If I said that I need you
Will it make you feel right
If I say I still believe in you
That you still shine a light
Down on my soul
And I'm still finding comfort that...

After all this time
Your lovin still feels right
I still need ya
I still believe in ya
After all this time

Through all the year's gone by
I still look at you
And never wonder why
You still treat me right
And I'm still finding comfort

After all this time
Your lovin still feels right
I still need ya
I still believe in ya
After all this time
After all this time
