

Disappear

Winger

You parted the red sea
And woke this in me
Unveiled a world deep in my need
Your essence calling
Can't keep from falling
Into your world
I will come crawling

Out of the light
Into the night
Two worlds ignite

Gone in the sweet abyss
I will cease to exist
disappear in your love
Lost in your holy bliss
Your everlasting kiss
disappear in your love

I feel your presence
Can taste your essence
I hold you in me like a prayer
Your every motion
Magic explosion
Lost without you in despair

Let it begin
I breathe you in Vanish again

Gone in the sweet abyss
I will cease to exist
disappear in your love
Lost in your holy bliss
Your everlasting kiss
disappear in your love
