

Your Great Escape

Winger

You stopped believing
Left your will behind
It's getting late
Good luck is hard to find
Might take a supernova
To blast your way out of the grind

The voice in your head is screaming... what you already know

This is it
Your great escape
Are you in or out?
Live on your vision
It's all you got
When it's said and done
You owe no-one
What ya waiting for?

You've heard it all before
From A to Z
Everyone telling you
What you should be
Might take a hurricane
To blow your mind and set you free

Don't need to look far to see it... what you already know

Here it is
Your Great Escape
Are you in or out?
Live on your vision
It's all you got
When it's said and done
You owe no-one
When your numbers up
You got to take your one best shot
