

Chaos Dwells Within

Winterborn

Hallucinations, unleashing the rage
Break the chain of demons in my head
Screaming in madness, emotion of hate
Angry thoughts rise like a hurricane
They will make me lose control

Death comes from inside
The rider from hell, bringer of insanity
Reign of terror will come
Is this for real or dream?

Regression - is tearing his soul
Depression - anxiety grows

He lives in his world so alone, the walls closing in

Creation of evil, born of the dark
Rising from the ashes of the mind
They won't leave me be alone

Delusions again, nightmares on awake
I'm trapped inside this living hell
Screams inside me I hear
Vultures of the night are near

Regression - is tearing his soul
Depression - anxiety grows

He lives in his world so alone, the walls closing in (walls closing in)
His smothered mind tells lies about his sanity

He lives in his world so alone, the walls now closed in
The dead flames of his internal hell won't blaze up again
