

Murderer

Wintersleep

You're gonna want it all back
You're gonna want it all
You're gonna want it all back
You're gonna want it all
You're gonna want it all back
You're gonna want it all
Are you a starving man?
You're gonna want it all back
You're gonna want it all
Are you a righteous man?
Throwing the witches on the fire
You're gonna burn em up
Are you so violent, yeah?
You're gonna want it all back
You're gonna want it all
They're gonna cut your neck
Give me the words you said you liked
You're gonna want it all
Are you a violent man?
Are we the lovers in July?
And then the lightning comes
Oh, and it don't come back
You're gonna want it all back
You're gonna want it all
Are you a violent man?
Throwing the witches on the fire
They're gonna cut your neck
