Winterstorm

Fire

The shrine of cleansing light
Devours darkness endless fight
Reborn a thousand times
The phoenix medal prime.

Wind

A temple built up high
Into the endless sky
It's reaching high and low
The shamans of crow.

Earth

The massive mountains hard
Are formed to be guard
Of seed and live to care
The templars of the bear

Sea

Protecting like a shield
Its secret are revealed
The balance is endangered
The rayclan sends reingers

Ice darkness death

Are gathering for the mess

Ref: We must choose

Once again for our world
One fighter one saviour
A man of honor poise no more
The dark side rise again
They found a way to break
The shield of Cathyron

Stars

Down fall of burning lights
Ground cracks heavy tides
The nether servants soar
To start the conquest war

Blood

Toll from all brutes they seek
To enlarge the Shelter's leak
Capturing for the tradeoff
Unaware of Teron's love

Aid from the bears

A secret's shared
A hero's dare

We must choose

Once again for our world
One fighter one saviour

The shield of Cathyrion
