In Time We Trust

Winterstorm

In time we trust Remembering the last summer In time we trust When the night turns into day The time we share When we ride into the lands of Calm and peace And freedom in eternity

Gather in the night Let them hear you fight When the moon shines in the sky Gather in the night Hear their battlecry Then the night turns into day