

Pushing The Extreme

Wipers

Through your mirror there is such vanity
Through the light, it broke to me
That explains?
So you think you fly so free...
But they'll take you so far away...
Leaving no remains...

Pushing the extreme...

In your head is like a movie screen
Why'd it have to cause a scene?
That explains?
So you think your mind is free?
But they'll take it so far away...
Leaving no remains...

Pushing the extreme...

Through your mirror there is such vanity
Tell me, what is it that it wants from me?
You know, child...we used to be in it for the same thing...
But now it's one against the other...
What's this price we've got to pay?

You thought your soul would be free?
But they'll take it so far away...
Leaving no remains...

Pushing the extreme...
