

Sign Of The Times

Wipers

See the sun as it falls from the sky
I put in two words for a moment of time
It took so long but I found it could last
This moment was ancient, but it it quite past?

Wounded so long when so long what is right?
If they should ask, it's a song of the times, yeah.

See them talking explain how it feels
Bunch of talking, their words standing still
Just one more round of the table affairs
I'm second, nurse, but the sound?
Oh I don't care

Wounded so long when a wrong wasn't right
If they should ask its a sign of the times

See the sun as it falls form the sky
I put in two words for a moment of time
Itt took so long just to find out too late
No use complaining, explaining your fate
Wounded so wrong when a wrong was a right
If they should ask, it's a sign of the times

Wounded so long
Come along
What is right?
If they should ask, it's a sign of the times, yeah.
