

The Illusion Fades

Wipers

Whispers coming from the dead of night
Hide my eye's from the candle light
It's so important
Oh, don't want to see
People people everywhere
Coming going, no one cares
It's so important
Can't you dig this vivid thing that's going on?

Do you really want to know what love is?
To color into something to live for
When the pain is too much to bear
Nothing there, it's so hard to bear
Don't know what to do
Don't know what to say
Don't know who to blame
It's so important
Can't you dig this vivid thing going on?

Mirror mirror on the wall
Do you tell the truth at all?
or is it just an illusion?
Oh, don't want to see
Can I pass thru your dimention?
Could we reach the other side?
It's so important
Can't you dig this vivid thing going on?
