

Adore Your Island

Wire

A hand that opens reveals much to a mind that's closed
It holds a fragile head in intensive care
Don't be so worried—you're the one who should be spared
You're one who should be spared

You're the one who should be spared

Don't be so worried—you're one who should be spared
The embarrassment, the pain, the need—it's always the same
First I say I love you, then you are silent
How I adore your island. How I adore your island

You're the one who should be spared
