Fragile

Wire

Tears fall in slivers, you broke my shades
The light's too bright, let me bury my heart
Filter emotions of green, cowardice gives blue
A restricted view, let me open my heart

I have a fleeting love, Scorching when it lands Fragile Needing precious hands Fragile, Fragile, Fragile

You eat my energy, give me more rope Nail in the wall, let me hang my heart, hang my heart

I have a fleeting love, Scorching when it lands Fragile Needing precious hands Fragile, Fragile, Fragile
