

Life Isn't Fair

Wisdom In Chains

I had a teacher back where I was in school.
He talked down to the little joey like a fuckin fool.
He said: "life ain't fair. you're gonna find out quick.
If you ever graduate you ain't gonna be shit"
It was hard to concentrate cause I have tourettes
But I'm as smart as a motherfucker. don't forget
I said to him "yeah you're probably right.
I guess you better start locking your shit at night"
I was a nerdy little kid with a heart of gold.
But this type of bullshit made my heart turn cold.
I always had a hate for authority
But now I'm over the edge. I wanna smash shit break shit.
I was 11 and I wasn't gonna take shit.
Your life is over and your making me pay for it.
That night his car got smashed with a brick.
Unfortunate but he found out quick.
Life isn't fair. life isn't fair
If it ain't fair for me then it ain't fair for you
