Wisdom In Chains

We are Pittsburgh to Stroudsburg. Carson St to Green.
Nanticoke ot Phildelphia and everywhere between,
I Just wanna tel you where the fuck I'm from.
The Land Of Kings is my only home.
I'm proud of PA and I'll always represent it.
I've shed blood, spilled blood, done dirt in it.
I just wanna tell you where the fuck I'm from.
The Land of kings is my only home.
I represent the keystone state
from the hoods to the woods to the mountains to the streets.
If you never lived it then you'll never understand.
I'm singing about the glory of the working man.
I represent The Keystone Sate.
My brother for life and familiar faces.
Come Holla at me if you're in my town.
Cause BFL whe hold it down.
Pennsylvania I fuckin love you,
you keep me safe and you give me a shelter.
I dream about my home when I'm away from you.
no matter where I roam I will come back to you
we are the keystone.
Land where our fathers died.
we are the working class. rebirth of the hardcore pride.
we are the keystone. that's where they'll bury me.
I'm represent PAHC till the day I die
