

Heaven And Hell

Wisdom

Sometimes I feel like a motherless child
I hate to live my powerless life
Sometimes I fear every toll of the bell
I am between Heaven and Hell

Some other times I am so high
Just like an eagle high in the sky
Joy in my soul and I have more
Pleasure than I had ever before

And when the angel is not on my side
I wish my anger out of my mind
Another day is another in Hell
This is my fate trouble and care

I wanna live, throw it away
I wanna be somebody again
Let my life go, I need to know
Nothing is easy, nothing at all

Time has come to rule my life
Find some peace of mind

Heaven and Hell, trouble and care
Dark and dreamless nights
Trouble and care, Heaven and Hell
Time to say goodbye

Heaven and Hell
