

Mary Jane

Wishbone Ash

You're cruel lover, all take and no give
A bad mother, just let me live

I feel like floating, purged of all pain
Joy and wonder, I'll take you again

You're a mean mean fiddler, you play with my mind
You're a bad bad teacher, making pupils go blind

You're a glimpse of heaven, a trip to the edge
I long to be near you, let's meet on the ledge
Daytime or twilight, darkness and light
Melting quietly, and stay up all night

Mary Jane you're a timeless dream
You're multidimensional, if you know what I mean
You float me up gently, slower than slow
And then I come down like glistening snow

You're a cruel lover, all take and no give
A bad mother, just let me live
Dreaming in ether, too good to be true
Senses run riot, am I me or you?

My heart starts racing, but I'm still in control
Reattaching connections, mind body and soul

Mary Jane you lead me through mazes
You always amaze me, you make me go crazy
You show me new places I take giant steps
Like walking a tightrope with no safety net

Mary Jane you're a timeless dream
You're multidimensional, if you know what I mean
You float me up gently, slower than slow
And then I come down like glistening snow
