Rainstorm

Wishbone Ash

I'm amazed at the way you do, You do the things that they want you to. Can't you see there's a turning tide? It's going to turn into a landslide.

The ground will fall from your feet, You got to do before you feel the heat. It's "Heads I win, tails you lose" -There's no escaping any way you chose.

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, Something's blowing up in the air. Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, There's a rainstorm coming, beware.

Oh, it's a tragedy it had to come to this. There's no way out, so don't you try to resist. The thunder cloud hanging overhead, It's going to break and cause a landslide.
