

She Was My Best Friend

Wishbone Ash

The daylight train comes so slowly
And now it's so easy to see.
Warm at night
She sleeps so tight.
She gave me comfort
Made me smile
She was my best friend for a while.

Well, I was no hurricane
A daylight dream of mine.
She comes with the sun.
In the morning sun
We shared the mystery of a power.
She was an angel in my darkest hour.

As I close my eyes
I can see her face
Feel inside a rhythm
I can feel her warm embrace.

She comes with the sun
In the morning sun
She gave me comfort
Made me smile.
She was my best friend for a while.
