

Tally Ho!

Wishbone Ash

So you trusted the bankers when they gave you that loan
At a crazy percentage and it cost you your home
Let the fat cats know how you really feel
It's cold in their shadow, hard under their heel

Tally Ho! And so it goes

We have a choice, we can turn this around
Raise up your voices and stand your ground
We'll not be silenced there can be no doubt
They're the insiders we're taking them out
