

Test Of Time

Witch Hammer

I'm running. I leave away from you. I'm running. You can't catch my hand.

1.) You think about me, when I am far.

Your nightmare comes in.

If you can trust me, or not at all.

It's under your skin.

2.) I told you honey, that I was right.

When it was starting.

The holy patience, you have to find.

My life is spinning.

R:) Running, searching, can you feel my pain, you still cut me like a razor blade.

Things should not be rushed I feel inside.

This is my, test of time.

3.) I feel your worries, but time will come.

No place for fallen.

You'll learn to know it, you'll realize.

That you were foolish.

R:) Running, searching, can you feel my pain? You still cut me like a razor blade.

Things should not be rushed, I feel inside.

This is my, test of time.
