

Time Of The Burning

Witch Hammer

It's only rain and riding the storm, follow my steps in fussy world.

The road is blank it seems to be my own, it's different that in start again.

Another skill we get for again, fighting for what we believe in. Hold up the wall to enemy votes, break up the chains, inside we burn.

Whenever time is leaving, whenever you can Feel all right. No more attractive manners, for building the sympathy.

In the time of the burning, Rock'n'roll is turning.
In the time of the burning, Rock'n'roll tonight.

2. Forever light of metal shall burn, we set it loud and without sessions.

Take it or leave this manner of world, we are unchanged and destiny calls.

Whenever time is leaving, whenever you can Feel all right. No more attractive manners, for building the sympathy.

In the time of the burning, Rock'n'roll is turning.
In the time of the burning, Rock'n'roll tonight.
