

The Storm

Witchery

Stand back and behold the wrath
The eye of the storm second to none
Magnificent power supreme
Gracing the skies and trembling the ground

Deleted horizon
Earth torn to shreds
Diabolical storm of the end

Rushing forth a blackened wall
A whirlwind of anger God save us all
It's the sign of the southern cross
Ashes to dust - Ashes to dust

A wind with sulfuric debris
Blows hard
Rages violently

Deleted horizon
Earth torn to shreds
Diabolical storm of the end
