

Stick And Move

With the Punches

I just need you to know that
Everything I said tonight was practiced in my room
Not twenty minutes before I saw you
In that red dress that you wore so well
But your motives become transparent and we can tell

I'm turning blue
Holding my breath for something new
Should I hold back or keep my pride in tact?

So here's to second chances
I close my eyes
And hold on tight
For one true thing
To finally feel real

I'm gonna start by saying what I mean
Regardless of where this goes or how it ends
It's better to know now
That we're with friends

Operate on little to no sleep
Caffeine and "Jersey's Best Dancers"
This is the soundtrack that saved my life

So here's to second chances
I close my eyes
And hold on tight
For one true thing
To finally feel real

I'm gonna start by saying what I mean
Regardless of where this goes or how it ends
It's better to know now
That we're with friends

If I close my eyes
And hold on tight
For one true thing
To finally feel real (2x)

I'm gonna start by saying what I mean
Regardless of where this goes or how it ends
It's better to know now
That we're with friends

If this is where it ends
It's better to know now
That we're with friends