

Holy Ground

Within Temptation

Hey!

It's been a while since I told you that I hate you
You've turned the truth inside out
Don't turn your back when I face you, or I'll make you
You turned my world upside down

You get inside my head, I want you out
'Cause I've been betrayed on holy ground

Burying the truth with lies
Fed up how you justify
And I hate it
And I hate it
You're so despicable
When you're acting unreasonable
And I hate it
And I hate it
Your words like firing guns, bullets raining
The way you hurt me 'cause you never wanna face it
Your words like firing guns, bullets raining
Bullets raining, you never wanna face it

But what does it take to break you, to awake you?
To make you bow and spit it out?
Doesn't matter if I hate you or embrace you?
Nothing makes you turn around

You got inside my head, I want you out
'Cause I've been betrayed on holy ground
Holy ground, yeah

Burying the truth with lies
Fed up how you justify
And I hate it
And I hate it
You're so despicable
When you're acting unreasonable
And I hate it
And I hate it
Your words like firing guns, bullets raining
The way you hurt me 'cause you never wanna face it
Your words like firing guns, bullets raining
Bullets raining, you never wanna face it

The way you hurt me 'cause you never wanna face it

Burying the truth with lies
Fed up how you justify
And now I hate it
And now I hate it
You're so despicable
When you're acting unreasonable
And now I hate it
And now I hate it
Your words like firing guns, bullets raining
The way you hurt me 'cause you never wanna face it

Your words like firing guns, bullets raining
Bullets raining, you never wanna face it, face it
Bullets raining, you never wanna face it
