

Silver Moonlight

Within Temptation

Turn around, open your eyes
Can't move on, the fear is tying me down
Oh, open your eyes
It's all right
Oh!

I'm hellbound in this life
Keep fighting this endless war
It's always been like this, I don't know why
As they've gone up your mind
Your fear, it ties you down
Going down
I won't bow
No!

Screaming at the walls of fire
They're closing in on me
I've hunted for the vertical of silver moonlight
It's where I wanna be
Screaming at the walls of fire
But I'm still running free
In the silver moonlight
I can't breathe
Oh!

These days are only now
Breathing in the coldest lies
I think that's only what you have in mind
Holding onto the best of you
I hit the pavement
Going down
I won't bow
Don't!

Screaming at the walls of fire
They're closing in on me
I've hunted for the vertical of silver moonlight
It's where I wanna be
Screaming at the walls of fire
But I'm still running free
In the silver moonlight
I can't breathe

I've been patient
But it's colors that I need
Too many shades of grey
I cannot breathe
The dreams I have, been tainted
I need you to believe
The only way to make them real
Oh!

Screaming at the walls of fire
It's where I wanna be

But I'm still running free

Turn around, open your eyes
Can't move on, the fear is tying me down
