

Towards the End

Within Temptation

They turn against the world we know
Now our destiny will be decided
We have to send our brothers in arms
With pain in our heart we watched them go
Will they return?

Truth is we had no choice
We'll try to shield those we can
No better world, let this end
Mothers cry, our boys die
But we'll stand until the end
