

Extinguish Them

Within the Ruins

Silence falls upon the room he condemns
All eyes ahead
Now that I have got your attention, all eyes to the front of the room
Listen closely
Now that I have got your attention, listen closely
I won't repeat myself
Read these words
I speak these truths
Watch them bring us down
I speak the truth
You will be known for nothing
You will be left for dead
You will be known for nothing
You will be left for dead
Devour the sick and spit out the weak
Sell the poor slaves
Devour the sick and spit out the weak
Sell the poor to the slaves and extinguish them
Chapels burn and rooftops crash
Chapels burn
Rooftops crash
I hate the world
I hate the world so let it hate me back
Now that I have your attention, believe what you want
You're just better off living in the darkness
Believe what you want
Is this what you want?
We believe in what we want
We don't believe in any of your shit
No
We believe in what we want
We don't believe in any of your shit
Why?
Why am I the one who suffers from your choices?
We decided my fate
Living amongst the men that have perished let the whole thing burn
We built this land on glory
Save me from the end
