Feeding Frenzy

Within the Ruins

You're eating yourself alive Alive and you don't even see it Accept the signs You can take it or leave it

Whatever happened to integrity? Whatever happened to sincerity? A feeding frenzy A monstrosity

Leeching on tho a host and never letting go You're bleeding it dry, Draining it of any growth Once a leech now turned into a ghost The feeding frenzy has left you all alone

So now it's time to let go So now it's time to let go So now it's time to let go

The only thing a fool knows The only thing that is visible Is what has been put on the pedestal The only thing a fool knows

Leeching on tho a host and never letting go You're bleeding it dry, Draining it of any growth Once a leech now turned into a ghost The feeding frenzy has left you all alone

Their sights are set And now they feed Their senses are numb But still they feed

Forgive them for they don't know what they do This is all they know Their senses are numb And still, and still they feed And still they feed

They're eating themselves alive

So now it's time to let go It's time to let go It's time to let go It's time to let go
